ARTICLE VI: ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

SECTION 6.1: THE STRUCTURE

The Federation shall have a three-tier organizational structure – a General Council (to be also known as ‘the Council’), an elected Board of Directors (BOD), and a Board of Trustees (BOT).

SECTION 6.2: THE GENERAL COUNCIL

- a) Each member-association shall nominate at least one Councilor to the Council for each additional set of ten or part thereof of primary members in its records may nominate subject to a minimum of one and maximum of four Councilors. The nomination(s) shall be in writing and signed by two elected officers of the nominating association.
- b) The Council shall review, and if need be, change the numbers referred to in 6.2(a) above.
- c) Councilors nominated by member-associations shall together constitute the General Council.

- d) The term of a Councilor shall be from January 1 to December 31.
- e) All decision-making power of the Federation shall rest with the Council. Unless otherwise specifically provided, the Council will be assumed to have delegated all of its powers to the BOD subject to review.
- f) All decisions taken by the Council shall be final.
- g) The Council shall be the sole authority to amend the Constitution and/or the Bylaws.
- h) The General Council shall meet at least once every quarter.

SECTION 6.3: THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS: COMPOSITION

The BOD shall be comprised of seven members. In the first year of its inception, the Council shall elect, from among its Councilors and for a period of one year, six Directors -- (i) a President, (ii) a President-elect, (iii) a Treasurer, (iv) a Treasurer elect, (v) a Secretary, and (vi) a Secretary- elect. These six Directors shall together constitute the Board of Directors. In the second and subsequent years, the President-elect shall become the President, the Treasurer-elect shall become the Treasurer and the Secretary-elect shall become the Secretary. Thus, in the second and subsequent years, the Council shall elect from among its Councilors only the three 'Elects', viz., the President-elect, the Secretary-elect and the Treasurer-elect. The outgoing President shall be an ex-officio member of the BOD.

SECTION 6.4: THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS: TERM OF OFFICE

- a) The term of office of the Board shall be one accounting year (July 1- June 30) with the provisions that a member of the Board of Directors may be re-nominated by the Council for another term, and that a person may not serve on the BOD for more than two consecutive terms.
- b) No elected position shall be with the same member-association for more than two consecutive terms.

SECTION 6.5: THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES: COMPOSITION

In the first year of its inception, the Council shall elect, from among its Councilors, a total of five Trustees. The term of these first-time Trustees shall be from one year to five years, with the Trustee getting the most votes serving the longest term. In the second and subsequent years, one Trustee shall retire each year and the vacancy shall be filled by election from among the Councilors. In addition, the BOD and BOT will have the authority to nominate up to subsequent five additional Trustees from among its benefactors who need not be councilors. All Trustees (elected and nominated) together from amongst themselves for a period of one year shall elect a Chair from amongst themselves for a period of one year.

SECTION 6.6: THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES: TERM OF OFFICE

- a) The term of the elected Trustee shall be five years from election to election, with the provision that no Trustee may serve more than two consecutive terms;
- b) The term of the nominated Trustees shall be five years from election to election, with the provision that they can be nominated to serve for additional consecutive terms;
- c) No more than two Trustees may be elected from the same member-organization;
- d) The term of the Chair shall be one year, with the provisions that a Chair may not serve more than two consecutive terms, and a Chair may not be elected from the same member-organization more than two consecutive years.

SECTION 6.7: ELIGIBILITY

- a) At the time of being appointed, nominated or elected to any position in the Council, BOD, or BOT, the individual must be a member in a respective member-association. Subsequently, if the individual's membership in his association ends for any reason, his position in the Federation also shall terminate automatically with effect from the date when the said membership ended.
- b) At the time of being elected to BOD or BOT, the individual must be a Councilor in the Federation. Subsequently, if the individual ceases to be a Councilor, he will continue to retain his elected position on the BOD or BOT, provided that he maintains membership in his own member-association.
- c) If an individual holding any position on the Council, BOD, or BOT moves from one geographical area to another, he shall retain his position on the Federation, provided that he either maintains membership in his member-association, or becomes a member in another member-association.
- d) If an organization ceases to be a member of the Federation for non-payment of membership fees by the deadline, or for any reason, the services of all persons representing that organization will automatically terminate from the Council, BOD and BOT.
- e) The President and President Elect of BOD shall be alumni of the University.

SECTION 10.1: VOTING

All decisions shall be taken by a simple majority of votes, except that amendments to the Constitution and/or Bylaws and Dissolution of the Federation shall require two-third majority of votes.

SECTION 10.2: PROXY

Proxy by e-mail shall be allowed provided that the e-mail came from the voter's e-mail address. All proxies must reach the President and/or the Secretary of the Federation at least 24 hours before the meeting.

ARTICLE XI: COMMITTEES

SECTION 11: COMMITTEES

The BOD and BOT may appoint as many standing or ad-hoc committees as they deem necessary for achieving the objectives and smooth functioning of the Federation.

ARTICLE XII: FEDERATION VS. MEMBER ASSOCIATIONS

SECTION 12.1: CONTROL

Member-associations shall continue to control their activities and be the master of their individual funds.

SECTION 12.2: NON-INTERFERENCE

Except in the case of joint projects/programs, member-associations shall continue to make their own decisions, with no interference from the Federation.

SECTION 12.3: PARTICIPATION

Member-associations shall have the right to participate or not to participate in any project/program sponsored by the Federation.

SECTION 12.4: COMMITMENT

Once a member-association decides to participate in a joint project/program sponsored by the Federation, it is not expected to withdraw in mid-stream.

SECTION 12.5: JOINT PROGRAMS

In all joint projects/programs, guidelines provided by the Federation shall be binding on all participating member-associations.

SECTION 12.6: NON-COMPETING

- (a) The Federation and member-associations shall not compete with each other in conducting projects/programs. Thus, if the Federation has sponsored a joint project/program, no member-association shall be allowed to run a parallel project/program on its own that might compete with the Federation-sponsored program. Similarly, if a member-organization has sponsored a project/program, the Federation shall not run a parallel project/program in the same geographical area.

- (b) If the Federation wishes to conduct a project/program, in a geographical area where the local member-association has refused to participate, then the Federation must obtain prior written consent from the local member-association.

ARTICLE XIII: AMENDMENTS

SECTION 13.1: INITIATION OF PROPOSAL

Proposals for amendments to the constitution and/or bylaws may be initiated by the BOD or the BOT or by a group of not less than 10% of the Councilors representing Regular member-organizations.

SECTION 13.2: SUBMISSION OF PROPOSAL

All proposals for amendments must be submitted in writing to the BOT who will review and transmit the proposal to the Councilors through the BOD to organize an Extraordinary Meeting of the Council.

SECTION 13.3: REQUIREMENTS FOR AMENDMENTS

(a) Only Councilors representing Regular member-organizations shall vote, those from Associate member-organizations are not authorized to vote. The Constitution and/or Bylaws may be amended by a two-third majority of Councilors present and voting including duly signed Proxy votes as per Section 10.2 of the bylaws, provided that a written notice of minimum thirty days along with the written text of the proposed amendments is given to all Councilors in advance of the meeting.

(b) Any Council Meeting to amend the constitution or bylaws shall meet the quorum requirement of the Extra-ordinary Meeting as in Section 9.4.

- (b) A person who holds an 'Elect' office (President-Elect, Secretary-Elect and Treasurer-Elect) shall not seek election for any BOD or BOT positions. Not more than two BOD or BOT positions shall reside with the same member organization in a given year. The total membership of an association in the BOD and BOT shall not exceed 3 (three).

“No member association will hold more than three (3) positions in the BOD and the BOT combined at the same time.”

- (c) The President and President-Elect shall be alumni of the Aligarh Muslim University
- (d) A member of the BOD shall not seek re-election to the corresponding position for more than two terms.
- (e) A person shall not serve on the BOD for more than four one-year terms in a row.
- (f) A person shall not serve on the BOT for more than two five-year terms in a row.

SECTION 14.7: ELECTION PROCEDURE

- (a) Each candidate shall be introduced to the Council prior to the election.
- (b) Each candidate shall be allowed to state his/her position and experience prior to the election.
- (c) Elections for all positions on the BOD and BOT shall be carried out using a single ballot that lists all candidates for all positions.
- (d) Each Councilor shall be given a ballot on which the voter may cast his vote secretly and shall deposit it in a ballot box provided.
- (e) The Election Officer shall compile the votes and announce the results after the elections.
- (f) The Chairman, BOT and the outgoing President or their representatives may assist the Election Officer in counting votes.
- (g) In the event two candidates for the same position receive identical votes, the Councilors present shall revote. Absentee ballots at this time shall not be counted. If, however, the second vote also results in a tie then the Election Officer shall invite the candidates for that position, write their names on two different identical pieces of paper and ask someone from the floor to come and pick one of the two names. One whose name is picked shall be declared the winner.

- (h) If no nominations are received from the floor for any position(s) on the election day then the BOD & BOT shall nominate a candidate to fill the position and get the Council approval within 30 days of election.

SECTION 14.8: ASSIGNMENT OF MEMBERS TO VACANT POSITIONS

- (a) Should a vacancy arise on the BOD or BOT due to resignation, succession or any other reason, it shall be filled by a person designated by the Council, provided such person meets the qualifications for the position as stated in the appropriate section of the bylaws. If at any time there remains a less than a majority of the officers originally elected by the Council, a meeting of the Council shall be called to elect the vacant position(s). The term of the new members shall not exceed the remaining term of the originally elected members.

ARTICLE XV: DISSOLUTION

SECTION 15.1: AUTHORITY OF THE COUNCIL

The Council shall have the power to dissolve the Federation by a two-third majority of votes.

SECTION 15.2: BOD AND BOT

The Council shall consider, and take a decision on dissolution of the Federation on the joint advice of the BOD and the BOT.

SECTION 15.3: DISPOSITION

In the event of dissolution of the Federation, the BOD and the BOT with the approval of the Council shall arrange to make provision for, discharge of all financial and other liabilities of the Federation, dispose of all assets of the Federation and distribute the remaining balance to all Regular member-associations, with aims and objectives of the Federation, as defined in Article II of the Constitution, in accordance with all applicable laws as an exempt organization under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or the corresponding provisions of the U.S. Internal Service laws.

ARTICLE XVI: CONFLICTS

SECTION 16.1: INDEMNIFICATION

In the event of a lawsuit or legal proceeding brought against any officer(s) of the Federation, in respect of any lawful act in the discharge of their duties of the Federation, the officer(s) shall be indemnified out of the funds of the Federation. All charges and expenses incurred resulting from their willful neglect or default shall be the exclusive responsibility of such officer(s).

SECTION 16.2: ARBITRATION

If a dispute arises between the FAAA Members, Officers or Council members and cannot be resolved through the efforts of the BOT of FAAA, it shall first be referred to an Arbitration Panel administered by three Arbitrators. The Arbitration Panel will consist of three members, one member selected by each party to the dispute and the third neutral arbitrator selected by the BOT. These arbitrators will be selected within thirty days after the BOT efforts have been unsuccessful to resolve the dispute. Prior to the commencement of hearings each of the arbitrators shall take an oath of impartiality. The judgment of the arbitrators, in writing, shall be final and binding on all parties. Any judgment rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court of law having jurisdiction thereof.

However, if there is a conflict between the BOD & the BOT, which they are unable to resolve within a thirty-day period in a joint session, then a commission consisting of three members (one nominated by the BOD, one by BOT and one by the Councilors) who are not serving either on the BOT or the BOD to examine the issues involved and render their judgment. The decision of the commission shall be final and binding on all parties. The members of this commission may not be Councilors but must have served as Councilors in the past.

SECTION 16.3: INTERPRETATION OF CONSTITUTION & BYLAWS

In case of ambiguity regarding the interpretation of any section of the Constitution and/or Bylaws or possible conflict between two or more sections, the interpretation of the BOT shall be final.
